

Protect your furniture against life's little mishaps.

What does a Protection 1st Protection Plan cover?

Maximum Combination

- Breakage of frames, panels or springs
- Breakage of mechanisms including sleeper mechanisms, reclining mechanisms and heating and vibrating mechanisms
- Failure of integral electrical components
- Lifting of veneers
- Warping
- Loss of silvering on mirrors
- All Stains
- Dye transfer onto surface of upholstery
- Punctures, rips or burns
- Liquid marks, rings or household heat marks
- Gouges, dents, scratches or chips that penetrate the finish exposing the substrate
- Nail polish remover
- Checking, cracking, bubbling or peeling of finish caused by a specific incident
- Glass or mirror chipping, breakage or scratches

Maximum Fabric

- Breakage of frames or springs
- Breakage of mechanisms including sleeper mechanisms, reclining mechanisms and heating and vibrating mechanisms
- Failure of integral electrical components
- All stains
- Dye transfer onto surface of upholstery
- Punctures, rips or burns

Maximum Leather

- Breakage of frames or springs
- Breakage of mechanisms including sleeper mechanisms, reclining mechanisms and heating and vibrating mechanisms
- Failure of integral electrical components
- All stains
- Dye transfer onto surface of upholstery
- Punctures, rips or burns

What is not covered by the Protection 1st Protection Plan?

- Manufacturer defects
- General wear and tear
- Pet damage (other than bodily fluids)
- Stains or damage occurring prior to or during delivery
- Stains or damage occurring while furniture is being moved between residences or while furniture is being moved into or out of storage

Refer to your protection plan document for specific details.

